cannot be considered.

14. The route, the service, the yearly pay, the name and residence of the bidd of (that is, his usual post-office address), and the name of each member of a firm, where a company offers, should be distinctly stated.

15. Bidders are requested to use, as far as practicable, the printed proposals furnished by the Department, to write out in full the sum of their bids, and to retain copies of them.

Altered bids should not be submitted; nor should bids once submitted be withdrawn. No withdrawal of a bidder or guarantor will be allowed unless the withdrawal is received twomtylowed unless the withdrawal is received twenty-four hours previous to the time fixed for open-ing the proposals.

Each bid must be guaranteed by two responsi-ble persons. The bid and guarantee should be signed plainly with the full name of each per-son.

signed plainly with the full name of each person.

The Postmaster tseneral reserves the right to reject any bid which may be deemed extravagant; and also to disregard the bids of failing contractors and bidders. (Act of June 8, 1872, section 249)

16. The bid should be sealed, subscribed "Mail Proposals, State of Nevada," addressed "Second Assistant Postmaster General, Contract Office" Bids of $5,000 per annum and upward must be accompanied by a certified check, or draft, on some solvent National Bank, equal to 5 per cent, of the amount; also bids for service which now costs $5,000 or more per annum. Where the present pay is $5,000 or more, it is stated in the advertisement under the appropriate route.

17. The contracts are to be executed and returned to the Department by or before the 1st day of June, 1874, otherwise the accepted bidder will be considered as having failed, and the Postmaster General may proceed to contract for the service with other parties, according to law.

Transfers of contracts, or of interest in contracts, are forbidden by law, and consequently cannot be allowed. Neither can bids or interest in bids, be transferred or assigned to other parties. Bidders will therefore take notice that they will be expected to perform the service awarded to them through the whole contract sawarded to them through the whole contract routes.

19. A modification of a bid in any of its essential terms is tantamount to a new bid, and cannot be received, so as to interfere with regular competition. Making a new bid, with guarantee and certificate, is the only way to modify a previous bid.

and certificate, is the only way to modify a previous bid.

20. Postmasters are to be careful not to certify to the sufficiency of guarantors without knowing that they are p resus of sufficient responsibility. (See section 247, act of June 8, 1872.) They must not sign the certificate until the sum of the bid is inserted, and the bid and guarantee are signed by the bidder and (two) guaranters; a disregard of this instruction by Postmasters will subject them to immediate removal and to severe penalties.

Postmasters are also liable to dismissal from office for acting as agents of contractors or bidders, with or without compensation, in any business, matter, or thing relating to the mail service. They are the trusted agents of the Department, and cannot consistently act in both capacities.
